

Lincoln 1st Bank Appoints David F. Scelba to Board of Directors

Montville, NJ, February 8, 2021 – In a joint statement, Lincoln 1st Bank’s (“Bank”) Co-Presidents Philip B. Vaz and Erik J. Terpstra announce the appointment of David F. Scelba to the Bank’s Board of Directors.

Mr. Scelba is a successful local businessman, long-time Montville Township resident, and over his career, has been acknowledged for his leadership, mentorship, and civic involvement.

He is a recipient of the NJ Biz “ICON Honor Award” celebrating NJ leaders over the age of 60 who have achieved a long, fruitful career and continue to be a pioneer, change maker and kick-starter of innovation in their industries. ICON recipients mentor the next generation of business leaders to grow the Garden State's business community.

Mr. Scelba is an inductee in the New Jersey Advertising Hall of Fame in recognition of his leadership, creativity, professional integrity, philanthropic and economic contributions, and personal involvement in the New Jersey marketing community.

In recognition of his dedicated community service and Chamber of Commerce “Business-Person of the Year” award, Scelba received commendations and praise from the New Jersey Senate and General Assembly. He was honored in recognition for operating and managing a respected business with outstanding practices and services, and his personal commitment and involvement in the community.

According to Mr. Vaz, “We’re excited to have Dave join our board. His marketing expertise and involvement in the local community adds a unique dimension to the exceptional financial skillsets of our existing board members.”

Mr. Terpstra states, “Dave has helped other banks successfully re-brand and re-position themselves. Our executive team looks forward to working with him to enhance our customer communications, as well as all of the audiences we serve.”
